Privacy Statement

Swan Financial Planning, LLC, ("SFP") a New Jersey registered investment adviser, is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity and security of the personal information that is entrusted to us.

The categories of nonpublic information that SFP collects from you may include information about your personal finances, information about your health to the extent that it is needed for the financial planning process, information about transactions between you and third parties, and information from consumer reporting agencies, e.g., credit reports. SFP uses this information to help you meet your personal financial goals.

With your permission, SFP will disclose limited information to attorneys, accountants, and other financial professionals with whom you have established a relationship. You may opt out from our sharing information with these nonaffiliated third parties by notifying us at any time by telephone, mail, fax, email, or in person.

SFP maintains a secure office to ensure that your information is not placed at unreasonable risk.

SFP does not provide your personal information to mailing list vendors or solicitors.

SFP requires strict confidentiality in our agreements with unaffiliated third parties that require access to your personal information, including financial service companies, consultants, and auditors. Federal and state securities regulators may review our Company records and your personal records as permitted by law.

Personally identifiable information about you will be maintained while you are a client, and for the required period thereafter that records are required to be maintained by federal and state securities laws. After that time, information may be destroyed.

SFP will notify clients in advance if our privacy policy is expected to change. SFP is required by law to deliver this Privacy Statement to clients annually, in writing.
